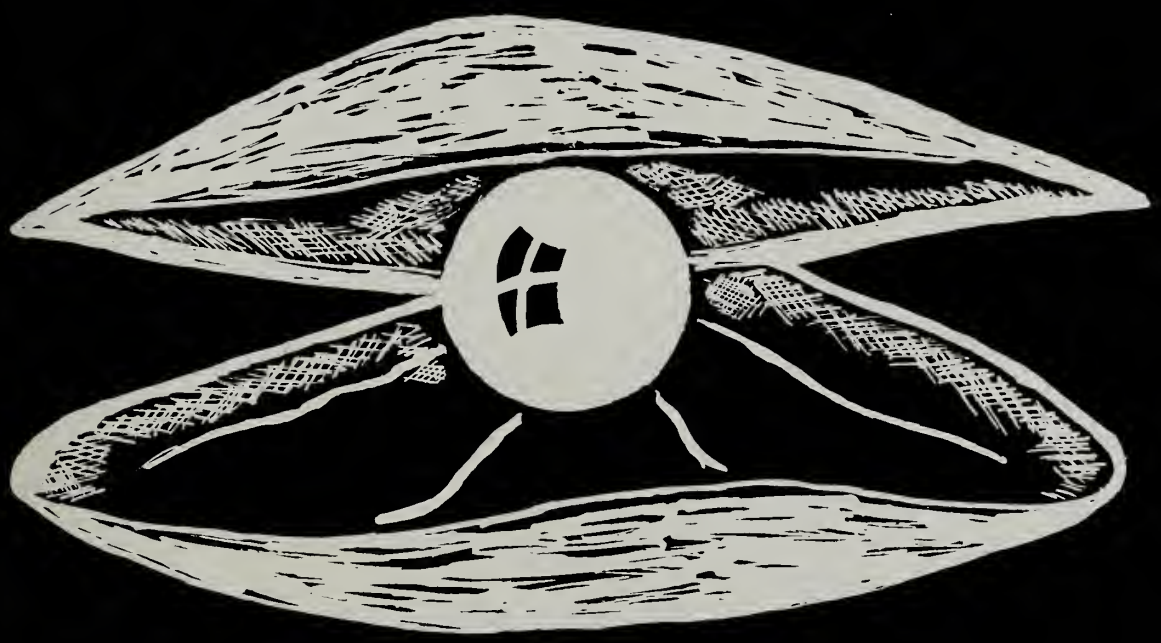
TIMARON

1966



MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL

MIDDLEBORO, MASSACHUSETTS

Dedication

Mr. Ralph Levesque

It is with sincere admiration that we, the Class of 1966, dedicate the Timaron to you, Mr. Ralph N. Levesque.

Your kindliness, your wisdom, and your unselfish devotion to the profession of teaching will continue to be reflected in the success of the many students to whom you have given understanding and guidance.

In your everyday role of gentleman, teacher, and friend, you have won the respect, gratitude, and sincere admiration of your students.

Our genuine best wishes go to you, Mr. Levesque. May a sense of fulfillment always give you satisfaction and happiness.

Mr. Ralph Levesque

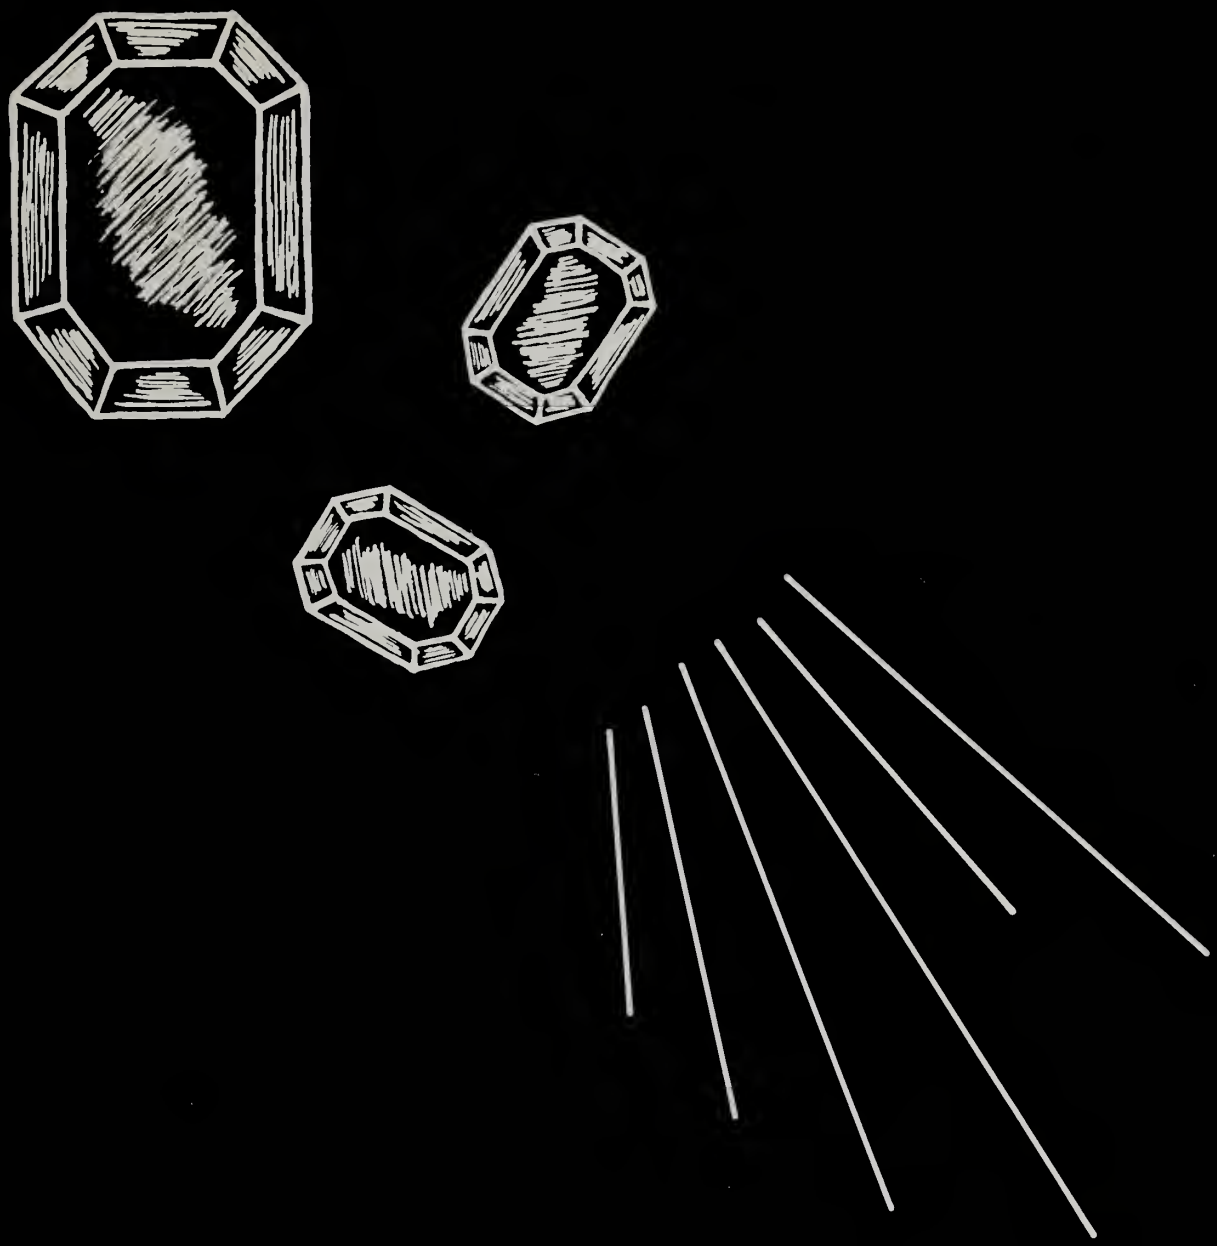
We, the Class of 1966, have many reasons for leaving Memorial High with a sincere and prayerful hope that we will be equal to the obligations which will soon be ours. Because of the many facets of our experiences during our high school years, we feel that we can leave with the thought that truly—"The world is our oyster."

Because of the learning, the guidance, the patience, the sportsmanship, and the friendship we have received while students at Memorial High, we know that our lives must reflect in turn some of the brilliance that has surrounded us. We know that these enduring values have had a great influence on us while at school and will continue to influence our lives after we have graduated.

We now present to you, in the 1966 Timaron, ourselves and our school as we know them. May the following pages provide many pleasurable and reminiscent hours that will cause the memories of Memorial High to glow and shine.

The Editorial Board would like to thank Mrs. Madeline Reilly, the literary advisor, and Assistant Principal Joseph King, the business advisor, for their assistance with the yearbook. Both Mrs. Reilly and Mr. King spent many hours during and after school each week to assist us.



ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

Superintendent's Message

In this paradoxical year of plenty amidst the cries of poverty, do not content yourselves with mediocrity. As you take your places in the world of work, business, homemaking, or further schooling, set your sights high and strive with all your might for progress and vision. Only by so doing can you hope to bring your expectations into realities.

My very best wishes to each and every member of the Class of 1966.

STANLEY KRUSZYNA
SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

The School Committee

SEATED, left to right: Kathryn R. O'Toole, C. Trafton Mendall, Chairman; Richard B. Wilmot, Vice-chairman. STANDING: Robert F. Howes, Paul R. Callan, Vincent L. Genua.

Principal's Message

Modest beginnings at best,
Emphases physical first, mental entwined.
Modules of time—tocks glib amidst the ticks
Order-up the student. Moronesque? No.
Raploch in form, tentative, wither the bark in imminent change. Marshall forth from lock-step,
Absterge the lesser parts, O consul
Legacy. Splendid with elan,
Honor, hope and full
Service to things sublunar and beyond.

Principal

Vice-Principal's Message

Members of the Class of 1966:

It has been said that man builds his future upon a knowledge of the past. Your education heretofore has been largely concerned with the past. Yours has been an education for freedom. Now you are on the threshold of your future. Your success will be determined primarily by your own abilities and initiative. For our way of life not only gives you the right to succeed, but also the right to decide how much of an effort to make in pursuing your own goals.

Each of you will be called upon to make important personal decisions, and your competence in this regard will depend upon how well informed you are about what's going on. How well we have served you will determine in large measure how well you perform in maintaining and strengthening the climate of a free world.

Class History — The Development of a Pearl

An oyster voraciously opened its shell for the class of 1966 in the September of 1962. As the sands of time washed in our imperfected grains, gradually a miraculous amalgamation occurred which has produced a cultured pearl, the class of '66.

Our germinal stage of development was one of fear and trembling. Many of us found our courses much harder than those to which we had been accustomed, while all had the problems of a new building and new teachers. Our most worthy freshman officers were Steven Quint, president; Naomi Shaw, vice-president; Linda Roberts, secretary; and Robert "Tweety" MacCready, treasurer. Phyllis Condon and her group of talented girls—Mary Ann Pierce, Becky Wilmot, Linda Blais, Charlene Sprayberry, Grace Remedis, and Marybeth Lang—led our football team to an undefeated season. This glory terminated with a party honoring our coach, Mr. Brown. Our first try at choosing Silver "M" Society members netted Grant McLean and Mary Ann Pierce. Arthur Shaw won a first place in the M.H.S. Science Fair. Our class was honored by having Henry Rondelli and Lloyd Maranville selected for the Southeastern Massachusetts District Concert. We were further honored by having Mary Jane Hydorn, Becky Wilmot, Sheila Iampietro, Kathy Schofield, Henry Rondelli, Clifford Higgins, Francis Bettencourt, and Lloyd Maranville chosen to attend the Southeastern Massachusetts School Bandmasters' Association Concert (SEMSBA) held at our own M.H.S.

We entered our binary stage at M.H.S. with more confidence; we knew most of the teachers and were steadily becoming used to the school's heating system, which acted more like an air conditioning unit much of the time. Many encountered biology, and we all hoped for a lab partner who enjoyed working with the entrails of worms, fish, and frogs. Wayne Caron, president; Paula Shaw, vice-president; Charlene Sprayberry, secretary; and Nancy Garafalo, treasurer led our class. Our able advisor—Mr. Mann helped to make our Christmas dance, "Silver Bells," truly a success. Musically speaking, Linda Roberts, Henry Rondelli, Mary Jane Hydorn, Lloyd Maranville, Kathy Schofield, Sheila Iampietro, and David Carver represented M.H.S. in the District Concert. Deborah Brightman, Mary Jane Hydorn, Henry Rondelli, Kathy Schofield, Sheila Iampietro, Ronnie Silvia, Dave Carver, Joanie Kingston, and Lloyd Maranville offered their melodious tones to SEMSBA. Meanwhile, Lloyd Maranville was chosen to participate in the All State Concert held in New Bedford. Arthur Shaw further honored our class by placing first in the M.H.S. and Regional Science Fairs and by representing M.H.S. at the State Science Fair. Paula Shaw and Wayne Caron were chosen by the class to wear Silver "M" pins.

Our tertiary stage finally arrived, and we were upper-classmen. Our officers were the same as those under whom we had developed during our sophomore year. Nancy Garafalo was recruited to fill the shoes of "Tweety" who had been chosen to be treasurer for our junior year, but had defected to Tabor Academy during the summer. Mrs. Millet cultivated our budding geniuses while Mrs. Whipple broadened our knowledge of the country. Billy Beckman and Charlene Sprayberry were tapped for the Silver "M" Society, and we shocked the entire student body with the induction of twenty-six scholars into the National Honor Society. Taking the pledge were Steve Quint, Paul Osborne, Sue Briggs, Dave Carver, Kathy Schofield, Sue Tomasik, Billy Beckman, Peter Coop, Henry Rondelli, Pam Carey, Naomi Shaw, Mary Sarkes, Mary Jane Hydorn, Linda Hughes, Sandy Strawn, Grant McLean, Sandy Wood, Annette Deschamps, Claire Haskell, Billy Akins, Linda Roberts, Lloyd Maranville, Sheila Iampietro, Laurene Kratko, Dianne Zwicker, and Dotty Standish. Little did these people realize that during the wee hours of the morning they would be lugging stepladders throughout the metropolis of Middleboro to raise flags on holidays. Arthur Shaw again won firsts in the M.H.S. and Regional Science Fairs and also caught a third from the judges at the State Science Fair. Arthur also won firsts in the local and regional oratorical contests sponsored by the Elks, and was chosen to try out at the state oratorical contest. Linda Roberts and Sue Briggs received honors on the national level in English, and Sue was also the first high school student to win a special scholarship which included a study of Russia and Russian at the Choate School and a trip to Russia in the summer. Our memorable junior prom, "Lollipops and Roses", was our class's social event of the year. Helping out with the labor were our class's faculty advisors, Mrs. Buck and Mr. Majuri. Chosen for Girls' State was Sheila Iampietro, while Richard Rogers and David Carver were selected to represent M.H.S. at Boys' State held at the University of Massachusetts. Representing our class at District were Ronnie Silvia, Mary Jane Hydorn, Sheila Iampietro, David Carver, Joanie Kingston, and Lloyd Maranville. At SEMSBA Mary Sarkes, Mary Jane Hydorn, Henry Rondelli, Becky Wilmot, Kathy Schofield, Sheila Iampietro, Charles Norvish, Joanie Kingston, Lloyd Maranville, Dave Carver, Deborah Brightman, Linda Hughes, Kathy O'Toole, Linda Roberts, Naomi Shaw, Valerie Wilson, and Jackie Bourque showed their musical ability.

In the fall of '65 we entered our terminal stage. We were faced with the universal problems of embarking upon an adult life. That upstart Peter Coop invaded the presidency, though the other officers returned to their positions. Four students from our class were officers of the Student Council which presented $425 to the War Memorial Fund. They were Wayne Caron, president; Naomi Shaw, vice-president; Josephine "Sissy" Marshall, secretary; and Phyllis Condon, treasurer. Many of our class learned how not to have explosions in the chemistry lab the hard way, while senior office girls had trouble with breaking their nails on typewriters. Four students, Mary Jane Hydorn, Wilma Hunt, Dave Carver, and Billy Akins honored our class by receiving National Merit Letters of Commendation. Charlene Sprayberry and Mary Ann Pierce, co-captains of the cheerleaders, and Claire Haskell, drum majorette and leader of the twirlers, "yelled" our varsity football team to many victories. Grant McLean and Dave Carver were capable co-captains in a season which yielded six wins and three losses. The Coronation Dance was studded with the appearance of the football queen, Naomi Shaw, and her court: Sandy Wood, Sheila Iampietro, Charlene Sprayberry, Mary Ann Pierce, and Mary Sarkes. Wilma Hunt, Cynthia Mackiewicz, and George Thompson were admitted into the National Honor Society, and the Silver "M" Society gained two new members, Dave Carver and Paul Harrison. The yearbook was created with the assistance of Mrs. Reilly by Henry Rondelli, Lloyd Maranville, Linda Roberts, Sue Briggs, Sheila Iampietro, Laurene Kratko, and many staff assistants. Mary Jane Hydorn was named our school's Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. Mary Jane also won first place in the Altrusa Club's essay contest and Laurene Kratko was named among the alternates. Sheila Iampietro was named as our school's DAR good citizen. For basketball, co-captains John Donato and Steve Lieois set off for a victorious season which saw the M.H.S. boys' varsity become Old Colony League Champions. Steve and John were chosen for the All Star Team. Ellen Burke and Joanne Parris led the girls' varsity team, which, like the boys' team, qualified for the Tech Tourney. At District, Henry Rondelli, Mary Sarkes, Mary Jane Hydorn, Kathy Schofield, Lloyd Maranville, Joanie Kingston, and Sheila Iampietro represented the class. At SEMSBA, the District members were joined by David Carver, Sue Briggs, and David Pennington. Quickly the year passed by.

In June, 1966, the great event took place. Principal Johnson opened the oyster' shell at graduation exercises. The cultured pearl, the class of '66, was released into the world.

Class Will

The illustrious Class of 1966, with its multitude of virtues and material attainments, has deemed it fitting to leave to the younger and inferior students of Middleboro Memorial High School the following priceless heirlooms:

Sandy, Shirley and Marilyn leave an empty Room 13.

Dotty leaves all her unused energy to Sherry Pattee; she'll need it.

Scott leaves Charlie Simas his good conduct record.

Paula leaves her hard stool in the chem lab to her brother Mark.

Sissy, Paula, Phyllis, Charlene, and Naomi leave the recipe for "Rominski" to all underclassmen with cast iron stomachs (for use at pajama parties only).

Nancy leaves her Plymouth-Carver book covers to Beanie.

Pame leaves her empty stool at Rexall's to Evie.

Linda and Ann leave Steph and Mitch in the dog house.

Roger leaves the books of knowledge to the junior class.

Richard Dunbar leaves his stoic writings in the reference section of the library.

Denny leaves Bobby an empty tennis ball can.

Mike leaves one crushed crusher gear to Ricky, a modified Vespa owner.

Anne leaves trying to think of something to leave.

Irene leaves with a prayer that the school keeps standing for a few more years.

Phyllis and Mary Ann leave Donny walking to Lorenzo's.

Pam leaves the mail box in front of the school to anyone with the right address—United States Navy.

Judy leaves with Dave.

Dave leaves a drawer full of broken glass to the next inhabitants of Table One in the chemistry lab.

Celia leaves her broken desk in commercial science to the next lucky student to sit there.

Dave leaves in his Sunbeam.

Wendy leaves M.H.S., but not Billy.

Dianne leaves her typewriter to next year's office girls.

Sandy leaves her books and teachers to the Class of 1967 with best wishes.

Gary leaves Rick riding his Vespa.

Debbie leaves Rod her old A string for his 'cello.

Judy leaves for the island on the next boat out of Falmouth.

Franny leaves corridor walking for Simas, Lemmo, and Phillips.

Bill leaves his collection of Bob Dylan records to John.

Louise leaves a bundle of roses to Candy.

Gary leaves his cruthes to next year's athletic teams.

Dave leaves his tomatoes and squash to Donny.

Val leaves a tomahawk, two broken arrows, and a brown feather to be used infrequently.

Karen and Sandy leave Mike to Debby and Sue.

Sandy leaves her brother Bobby at last.

Doug leaves willfully, happily, and wondering how.
Evy leaves regretfully.
Lynette leaves Dick to walk the corridors alone.
Charlie leaves his "ad lib" music to the next year's solo trumpeter.
Bud leaves his French Horn, finally in one piece to the music department.
Nancy, Claire, and Evy leave for Boston, following Al, Dave, Wayne.
Barbara leaves her psychology book to Sheila and Donna, hoping that they will use it wisely.
Kathy leaves a pair of shoes to Terri (she needs them).
Dave leaves to found a dynasty.
Bob leaves Vinny, Wayne, and Bernie West Side supremacy.
Mary Jane leaves without regret.
Sherry leaves her standing position on the class polls to Dottie.
Lyman leaves the broken glass tubing in chemistry to the next adventurer.
Barbara and Linda leave for work in Hyannis.
Barbara leaves her New York accent to Susan.
Nancy leaves Ruth a broken clarinet reed.
Cindi leaves a broken red and blue pen, shorthand notes, and a bottle of aspirin to next year's shorthand students.
Henry leaves a year's supply of blank columns in the Gazette to next year's ambitious (?) newswriters.
Arthur leaves a decent research lab to next year's biologists.
Sissy leaves Bernie throwing pumpkins at Dave's lighthouse.
Joan leaves her pierced ears to Cindy.
Mary leaves a pair of sneakers in locker 214.
Lulu leaves Paul his first free year at M.H.S., unhampered by outside influences.
Nadine leaves her basketball uniform to her sister Melanie.
Madeline leaves a donut cutter to her brother Raymond, who works at the Donut Delite.
Naomi, Linda and Suzanne leave a borrowed Austin Healy.
Steve leaves his height to next year's basketball team.
Cindy leaves shouting at the football team.
Paul leaves his rope climbing ability to some other athlete.
Richard leaves boring study periods and dull English classes to future "captive" audiences.
Dick leaves his car to some ambitious mechanic.
Joanne leaves her sister to the four happiest years of her life.
Jim leaves for the sunny shores of Monomet.

Being of sound (?) minds, we do leave the above treasures to those fortunate people mentioned in our last will and testament.

Signed,

Peter Coop

Peter Coop, President of the Class of 1966.

WORLD NEWS

Washington, AP—The head of the Peace Corps, Mr. Wayne Caron, announced that Afghanistan is now producing its own IBM machines. He is now sending Rose Ditano, Lynette Fruzetti, and Annette Deschamps to teach the people how to use them.

New York, UPI—The U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations proved that Cuba is building more sugar plantations. The Ambassador, Grant McLean, said that this was a violation of the treaty of 1972 in which Cuba promised to stop raising sugar if we stopped producing Tab.

Washington, AP—President Coop said today that Ambassador Susan Briggs has successfully completed her mission in Russia. The Soviet Union signed the nuclear disarmament treaty.

NATIONAL NEWS

Cape Kennedy AP—Among the members on the NASA force that received awards for their efforts in the successful space shot to Venus last month were five former residents of Middleboro. Raymond Abair, James Skaradowski, George Amaral, and Robert Fetherston received medals for their work on the mechanics and rocket launcher. David Bellerive received his award for his role as head technician of the launch.

STATE NEWS

On the state level, Speaker of the House, James LeRoy, says that he will not let the governor burden the people with another tax. The governor, Clyde Swift, is reportedly seething.

In the trial of Sherry Keith against Richard Dunbar, defense attorney James Berry used his key witness, David Vaughn, to prove that Miss Keith's fall from Mr. Dunbar's bus was entirely due to her own carelessness. The District Attorney, Sheila Iampietro proved that the bus-step was icy. Judge David Pennington will hand down his decision tomorrow morning.

In sports tonight, Coach John Donato's Celtics will take on David Carver's Patriots in a baseball game for the benefit of the Jimmy Fund. It will be broadcast by WPBN at 8:00. The sportscaster will be Scott Sleeper.

We are happy to announce that this newspaper is now read in many foreign countries. Added to our staff are Madeline Lavoie and Laurene Kratko to translate it into Hebrew and Chinese.

Mr. Richard Nelson, supervisor of music, formed three ensemble groups of three to five members. The Woodwind Trio's members are Henry Rondelli on oboe, Mary Jane Hydorn on flute, and Kathy Schofield on clarinet. These three people are joined by Lloyd Maranville on French horn and Beverly Alberti on bassoon to form the Woodwind Quintet. The third group is the Brass Quartet, and its members are Charles Norvish and William LaCombe on trumpets, Gerald Shaw on trombone, and Lloyd Maranville.

Music Theory Class

SEATED, left to right: M. Rockwood, M. Sarkes, M. Hydorn, M. Howard, E. Carver. STANDING: M. Brown, A. Sarkes, L. Maranville. Not present: Mr. Nelson, Advisor.

Under the direction of Mr. Nelson, the Music Theory Class was formed for the second year. The class meets every Monday after school in the Rounseville Building. Some of the work of the class this year was the study of scales, key signatures, chords, and intervals. Homework was regularly assigned to the members. A special project of the class was transposing a Christmas carol for the musical instrument of each member.

SEATED, left to right: C. Weston, L. Spencer, C. Caron, M. Vaughn. STANDING: R. Thomas, J. Mullen, N. Williams, D. Pennington, M. Falcetano. Not present: Mr. Brooks, Advisor.

District

FIRST ROW, left to right: M. Howard, E. Burnham, M. Hydorn, V. Wilson, M. Sarkes. SECOND ROW: K. O'Toole, K. Schofield, C. Weston, J. Kingston, S. Iampietro, B. Alberti, H. Rondelli. THIRD ROW, R. Moquin, R. Thomas, T. Engram, M. Browne, L. Maranville.

Each year the Massachusetts Music Educators' Association sponsors five music festivals. Four of these are for the four districts of Massachusetts: southeastern, northeastern, central, and western. M.H.S. participates in the Southeastern District, and this year seventeen of our school's students qualified to participate in either the District Band, Orchestra, or Chorus. The festival was held in Hingham on January 14 and 15. The other festival sponsored by MMEA is the All-State Festival. Five M.H.S. students qualified to audition for this.

SEMSBA

The above members of the Anchrier Chapter of the National Honor Society were inducted in 1965. Membership is based on scholarship, leadership, service and character. The main objectives of the society are to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to promote worthy leadership, to stimulate a desire for service, and to encourage the development of good character. The business of the society is carried on by five committees, to one of which each member must belong. This year, to raise money for the National Honor Society Scholarship, the society, in conjunction with the English Department and librarians, ran a bookstore during school.

CLASSES

Next Year's Shining Gems—The Class of '67

Class Officers

Down the staircase: Kathleen Scanlon, Treasurer; Lynne Spencer, Secretary; Michelle Chartier, Vice-president; Vincent Sykes, President.

Class Council

Down the staircase: Mr. Majuri, Mrs. Buck, Class Advisors; K. Scanlon, M. Chartier, L. Spencer, V. Sykes, J. Jeffery, K. Duggan, M. Elkin, C. Mecke, B. Zion, D. Jurgens. Members not present: J. Gero, D. Hittle, S. Batchelder, R. Matthews, S. Sullivan.

The Class Council plays a very important part in the management of the class's activities. It is usually made up of two representatives from each homeroom and of the class officers.

The representatives get ideas and suggestions from members of their homerooms and convey them to the council. In the council they are discussed and acted upon. Representatives also give reports of the meetings to the homerooms. Other tasks of the representatives are collecting class dues and heading committees for class dances.

This year has been an active year in basketball. First, we defeated a championship alumni team. Then we took hold of the first place in the Old Colony League. Then, losing a close game to Plymouth brought us into a nip and tuck fight for sole possession of first place. We pulled out ahead of Plymouth and came out victorious as the Old Colony League Champions. From there we entered the Tech Tourney.
